

MS Forest Legacy Program Application
Application Deadline: FEBRUARY 1, 2025

See the last page for application address and MFC contact information.

ABOUT THE FOREST LEGACY PROGRAM

The purpose of the Mississippi Forest Legacy Program (FLP) is to identify and protect environmentally important forest areas threatened by conversion to non-forest uses and to promote forestland protection and other conservation opportunities. The U.S. Forest Service provides up to 75% of the funds through a nationally competitive grant program to the state, and the program is managed locally by the Mississippi Forestry Commission. The FLP collaborates with private landowners to acquire perpetual conservation easements that permanently limit property interests and uses to protect forest values. FLP also purchases and accepts donations of forestland in full fee. The FLP only works with willing sellers or donors.

Designated Mississippi Forest Legacy Areas (FLAs) are:

North - Clay, Desoto, Itawamba, Lafayette, Lee, Lowndes, Monroe, Oktibbeha, Tishomingo

Central - Copiah, Hinds, Madison, Rankin, Simpson

Southeast - Forrest, George, Greene, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Jones, Lamar, Marion, Pearl River, Perry, Stone, Wayne

Prior to completing this application, you are strongly encouraged to review the Mississippi Forest Legacy Program Plan (<https://www.mfc.ms.gov/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/Mississippi-Forest-Legacy-Program-Plan-January-2021-Update.pdf>) for eligibility requirements and program guidance. Only properties located in one of the designated Mississippi FLAs will be considered and must meet the national and state criteria and must have a completed application submitted by the deadline. All easements and interests in land acquired through the program are conveyed in perpetuity and must contain such covenants and language to insure perpetuity of FLP easements. Participation in is strictly voluntary. For applications to be considered for the next federal fiscal year, the deadline for application submittal is February 1.

All materials submitted with this application become the property of the State of Mississippi and are non-returnable. Disclosure of this information is voluntary. However, failure to provide all of the requested information will substantially decrease the ability of designated persons to carefully review and rank your application and property for participation in the program.

The Mississippi Forestry Commission provides equal employment opportunity and services to all individuals regardless of disability, race, age, religion, color, gender, creed, national origin, or political affiliation.

SECTION IV. HOW YOUR PROPERTY FITS INTO THE NATIONAL FLP CORE CRITERIA

Nominated properties must compete nationally for FLP funds. They will be scored using three (3) national core criteria (Importance, Threatened and Strategic) AND must demonstrate they are “Ready” to be part of the Forest Legacy Program. Please describe how your property relates to the core criteria by answering each question below.

1. WHAT IS THE IMPORTANCE OF YOUR PROPERTY AS IT RELATES TO ANY ECONOMIC, CONSERVATION, ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL OR ECONOMIC PUBLIC BENEFITS THAT WOULD BE GAINED BY PROTECTING AND MANAGING IT? Include answers in the expandable box below. *Helpful hints – Describe in detail any attributes that are applicable to your property. More points will be given to projects that demonstrate multiple public benefits with national significance. Use the attribute prompts below to help you provide information on the importance of your property. Include any links, references, plans or other details to explain your answers. Please address all attributes applicable to your property in the text box below:

1.1 Economic Benefits from Timber and Potential Forest Productivity – This category includes three independent components:

- (1) Landowner demonstrates sustainable forest management in accordance with a management plan. Additional points are given to land that is third party certified (such as Sustainable Forestry Initiative, Forest Stewardship Council, and American Tree Farm System).
- (2) Forestry activities contribute to the resource-based economy for a community or region. Please explain.
- (3) The property contains characteristics (such as highly productive soils) to sustain a productive forest over time. Include the site index of soils on your tract.

1.2 Economic Benefits from Non-timber Products and Recreation– Does your property provide non-timber revenue to the local or regional economy through non-timber forest products (e.g., pine straw, native plant collection, etc.); recreation and tourism (local or regional benefits related to lodging, rentals, bikes, boats, outdoor gear, guided tours for fishing, hunting, or birdwatching, etc.); hunting leases; and/or ranching? Please explain.

1.3 Threatened or Endangered Species Habitat – Does your property have documented threatened or endangered plants and animals or designated habitat? Documented occurrence and use of the project is given more consideration than if it is habitat without documented occurrence or use. Federally listed species are given more consideration than state-only listed species. Please list species.

1.4 Fish, Wildlife, Plants, and Unique Forest Communities – Does the property contain unique forest communities and/or important fish or wildlife habitat documented by a formal assessment or wildlife conservation plan or strategy developed by a government or a non-governmental organization? Please provide species, community types and reference plans or assessments. Note: The importance of habitat to an international initiative to support and sustain migratory species can be viewed as national importance if conserving the property will make a significant contribution. Occasional use of the property or a modest contribution to an international initiative does not raise the property to national importance.

1.5 Water Supply, Aquatic Habitat, and Watershed Protection – Does the property:

(1) Have a direct relationship with protecting the water supply or watershed, such as providing a buffer to public drinking water supply, containing an aquifer recharge area, or protecting an ecologically important aquatic or marine area? and/or (2) Contain an important riparian area, wetlands, shorelines, river systems, or sensitive watershed lands?

Note: Consider the importance of the resource, the scope and scale of the property, magnitude and intensity of the benefits that will result from protection of the property. Merely being located within an aquifer recharge area or in a water supply area will not be given the same consideration as a property that makes a significant conservation contribution to water, riparian, and aquatic resources and habitats.

1.6 Cultural/Tribal/Historic – Does the property contain features of cultural, tribal, and/or historical significance that are documented by a governmental, tribal, or a non- governmental organization? Explain.

Note: A Federal designation should receive greater consideration.

1.7 Public Access – Does protection of the property maintain or establish new/expanded access by the public for recreation (including waterfront access)? Explain.

Note: Restrictions on specific use and location of recreational activities may be allowed. More consideration will be given to projects that expand or provide certainty of public access as a result of the proposed project.

1.8 Scenic – Is the property in a viewshed of a government designated scenic feature or area (such as a trail, river, byway, or highway)? Explain.

Note: Federal designation will be given more consideration than state-only designations when evaluating the significance of this attribute.

1.9 Carbon Sequestration/Climate Resilience, Adaptation to Climate Change* – Will protection result in benefits related to climate resilience and adaptation, and carbon sequestration?

Note: Many of the elements in Importance relate to climate resilience and adaptation. For example, forest productivity, health, rare or unique plant communities where species range is discussed, and water resources. Landscape scale conservation and its impacts on resilience and adaptation are also discussed in Strategic. Carbon sequestration and management are important impacts of the FLP program and of land conservation. The potential long term carbon management contributions may be best viewed as optimizing carbon sequestration among the host of values and services from conserved forest rather than a focus on maximization of carbon within a limited span of time. Sustainable carbon management results from effective conservation and management of ecosystems; maintaining, restoring and enhancing health and productivity. Forest Service General Technical Review-GTR WO-95 Considering Forest and Grassland Carbon in Land Management provides a good discussion and overview of carbon as a consideration in forest management.

1.10 Local community – How would protecting the property benefit the local community?

Note: Benefits to underserved communities and environmental justice initiatives should be highlighted. For example, benefits can be discussed within economic benefits, water, cultural, public access, or climate resilience. Benefits for underserved communities can also be discussed in the Strategic section.

IMPORTANCE ATTRIBUTES:

Box will expand to fit your responses:

2. EXPLAIN HOW YOUR PROPERTY IS THREATENED BY CONVERSION TO OTHER, NON-FOREST USES. Include answers in the expandable box below. Helpful Hints: This criterion estimates the likelihood for conversion. Please address the following:

2.1 Lack of Protection – Describe the lack of temporary or permanent protections (e.g., current zoning, temporary or permanent easements, moratoriums, and encumbrances that limit subdivision or conversion) that currently exists on the property and the likelihood of the threat of conversion to non-forest use (residential, commercial or industrial development, agricultural, energy or mining

2.2 Land and Landowners Circumstances – Describe the land and landowner circumstances (e.g., property held in an estate, age of landowner, interest of ownership and stewardship of property by heirs of current landowners is uncertain, property is for sale or sale pending, landowner anticipates owning the property for a short duration, landowner has received purchase offers, land has an approved subdivision plan, landowner has sold subdivisions of the property, etc.).

2.3 Adjacent Land Use – Describe adjacent land use characteristics such as existing land status, rate of development (e.g., statistics on recent and projected growth in the county and region), growth, and conversion in the immediate area, rate of population growth (percent change) and projections, rate of change in ownership, etc. These attributes are great to illustrate on a map too.

2.4 Ability to Develop – Describe physical attributes that will facilitate conversion, such as access, buildable ground, zoning, slope, water/sewer, electricity, permits, etc. Other types of conversion include agricultural expansion, wind or solar farms, or other uses that substantially remove or fragment forest cover.

Threatened Attributes:

Box will expand to fit your responses:

3. HOW IS THE PROPERTY STRATEGICALLY LINKED TO OTHER PROTECTED AREAS NEARBY? Include answers in the box below. Helpful Hints: This criterion reflects the project’s relevance or relationship to conservation efforts on a broader perspective considering scale, location, and relative contribution to landscape scale conservation goals. Discuss the following three attributes:

3.1 Conservation Initiative, Strategy, or Plan – How does the project contribute to an existing or new conservation initiative, strategy, or plan? Describe the relative contribution of the property to achieving the conservation goals of the plan, strategy, or initiative considering scale, location, and project attributes. Conservation plans that have been formally designated by a governmental, tribal, or non-governmental entity should be given more consideration. Contributions to a new strategy or a strategy under development may also be discussed. This can be useful if a project would contribute to, or catalyze, a new conservation initiative, strategy, or plan. For new initiatives specific goals should be defined, and potential contributions of how the project advances those goals should be highlighted.

3.2 Complement Protected Lands – How is the project is strategically linked to enhance already protected lands including past Forest Legacy Program projects, already protected Federal, State, or non-governmental organization lands (refuges, parks, national or state forests, military lands, conservation easements, wildlife management areas, parkways, coastal preserves, greenspaces, coastal preserves), or other Federal land protection programs (REPI, NRCS, NAWCA, NOAA, etc.)?

3.3 Other Landscape Scale Goals and Public Benefits – How does the project strategically contribute to the advancement of larger scale conservation goals and public benefits? Examples of larger scale goals and benefits could include but are not limited to climate resilience and mitigation, reduced community impacts from wildfire, floods, invasive species, etc., expanded public access, and protection of critical water supplies. Provide specifics on the project’s contributions to the larger scale goals and benefits. Projects that benefit diverse/socio-economically underserved communities and/or address environmental justice will also receive additional consideration.

Strategic Attributes:

SECTION VIII. LANDOWNER TESTIMONY AND PERMISSION

Please read, sign and date before submitting this application.

The information in this application is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. I, as the landowner or landowner’s authorized representative (proof of authorization must accompany the application), agree to allow any needed inspection, appraisal and survey of the property being offered for consideration under the Mississippi Forest Legacy Program. I agree to allow members of the MFC, the Mississippi Forest Legacy committee or their designee to inspect my property at any reasonable time for the purposes of this application. I understand I shall be notified in advance of all inspection visits.

I also understand that the resource values identified by me in this application for protection will be used by the Mississippi Forestry Commission to rank the proposal. Therefore, future protection and management of these resources are implied in the application and will be required in the easement (if applicable) and subsequent management plans. Substantial modifications of the intent set forth in this application by me or my representative will necessitate a review of the project and may jeopardize its selection and possible funding. I also understand that this property (i.e., conservation easement or fee simple title) will not be purchased if negotiations do not reach an amicable agreement, or if the property does not meet the needs or qualifications of the Mississippi Forest Legacy Program or if funding is unavailable. I understand that conservation easements or fee simple title will only be purchased from willing sellers.

I have read the application and understand that all Forest Legacy projects will be reviewed by the MFC for their suitability to the Mississippi Forest Legacy Program.
